DEEDS, NOT WORDS.

Barre People Have Absolute Proof of Deeds at Home.

It's not words but deeds that prove true merit.

The deeds of Doan's Kidney Pills, for Barre kidney sufferers, have made their local reputation.

Proof lies in the testimony of Barre people who have been cured to stay cured.

Mrs. Annie Gibb, 31 Brooklyn street, Barre, Vt., says: "I am just as strong in my praises of Doan's Kidney Pills to-day as when I recommended them several years ago. They cured me at that time and I am glad to say there has been no return of my old trouble. For over a year I had more or less backache, this being the result of disordered kidneys. If I brought any strain on the muscles of my back, sharp pains would seize me and I also suffered at times from headache and dizzy spells. When I overworked or caught cold, my trouble was always more intense. I read a great deal about Doan's Kidney Pills and deciding to try them, procured a box at E. A. Brown's drug store. Before I had finished the contents, the pains in my back were relieved and I felt better in every way."

GRANITEVILLE.

The entertainment given by the "Busy Bees" was quite unique in its way. It was altogether out of the ordinary and, of course, a splendid success. The "Old Woman's Day" brought down the house and upon request will be repeated at the "pie social" on Wednesday evening of this week.

Mrs. Nicholson, who was injured last week, we are glad to report, is rapidly convalescing.

The services preparatory to the sacrament of the Lord's supper were well attended, notwithstanding the busy spring season, and very much appreciated.

Rev. D. O. MacArthur, B. D., took charge of all the services on the Sabbath. At 10:30 he gave an illustrated lecture to the children, showing the attractive features of the cross. Notwithstanding the downpour, nearly all the children of the Sunday school were present and the church was full both morning and evening. Mr. MacArthur made a host of friends for himself during his short stay at Graniteville and will, we think, be gladly welcomed back again on some future occasion.

Charles Mackinnon of Butte, Montana, is visiting his brother, Malcolm Mackinnon. He leaves for the home of his parents in Cape Breton on Wednesday.

Miss Mitchell of Westerville is spending a few weeks at home with her parents.

The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church will give another of their popular pie socials on Wednesday evening of this week in the church hall. With refreshments will be given a good program, consisting of drills, songs, recitations, etc.

MRS. MABEL WILSON STACK.

Obituary of Woman Who Had Many Friends in This City.

The following taken from "The Patriot" of Baylor university, Texas, concerning the death of Mrs. Mabel Wilson Stack at Baylor, Texas, a short time ago will be of interest to Barre people, she having been well known here:

Last Saturday night the angel of death claimed as its own the young bride of J. E. Stack. The happy young couple had been married only sixteen days when the sad hour came. Both had been students of Baylor during the present year till the beginning of this term. The bride, Miss Mabel Wilson, has lived just across the street from the university, and was well known in the Baylor community. She was a member of her husband's church, having been baptized by him. The bridegroom is pastor of the Pin Oak Baptist church in East Waco, and in his eleven months' pastorate has witnessed an increase from sixty to one hundred and seventy members. Immediately after the wedding on the 14th of April, the couple went on their honeymoon to Houston, Galveston, La Porte and Nacogdoches, the home of the bridegroom's parents. When they saw she was dangerously sick, her mother was sent for, but she came too late to see her daughter alive.

"When death came no acquaintances or loved ones were with her, save her husband, who faithfully attended her during the dark hour of her approaching death. The remains with the grief-stricken mother and young husband reached Waco Sunday afternoon. On Monday afternoon in Carroll chapel, the funeral services were held, being attended by a large number of friends and students. Dr. Carroll, who had united them in the holy bonds of matrimony only a few days before, conducted the services. After the funeral the many friends and loved ones followed the remains to Oakwood cemetery, where they were laid for their earthly rest.

"One could hardly imagine a death sadder than that of this hopeful and happy young bride. It seemed in the midst of bright prospects that a sweet and beautiful life was taken away. At will rejoice to know that though it is a terrible shock to the bereaved husband, yet it is a source of supreme comfort that the young wife died a most happy death. Being perfectly conscious and realizing what was coming, she calmly bade her husband good-bye and went out rejoicing and humbly submitting to the Master's will.

"The bereaved bridegroom's many friends extend to him their most sincere and prayerful sympathy in this dark hour and express the hope that this trial shall draw him closer to the Father's bosom and enable him to do more in helping and comforting a sorrowing world."
